The figures show a Ferranti No. 38 synchronous bedside clock. The date is 1934. The clock is marked Made in England. It is for a 200-250 V supply. The style is Art Deco. The dark oak case is 15 cm high × 23 cm wide. The dial is 7½ cm diameter with a chrome bezel, black Arabic numerals and hands, and a gilt seconds hand. The brand on the front and on the back is Ferranti. The clock is fitted with a Ferranti Early movement. To start the clock rotate the starter knob. The inconspicuous seconds hand and rotating starter knob act as tell tales.
